End Notes—Philip Becker (Barker, Backer, Baker) – S12191

1. Philip is listed as Philip Barker in Captain Putman's Company payroll for 1781. Revolutionary War Rolls 1775-1783, Series M-246, Roll 78, folder 1731, National Archives, Washington DC.
2. There was no Captain McKee in Colonel Willett's Regiment in any years. There was a Captain Robert McKean in Colonel Willett's Regiment in 1781 but he was killed on July 10, 1781.
3. I believe he is referring to Lieutenant Jellis A. Fonda who served also as Adjutant in Colonel Willett's Regiment from May of 1781 to November 1782. On November 7, 1782, Fonda was appointed a Captain in Colonel Willett's Regiment. Philip did serve as a private in Captain Rudolph Kock's (Koch, Cook) Company in Colonel Jacob Klock's Second Regiment of Tryon County Militia.
