Sworn to & declared on the 28th day of May 1823 before me in open court. Asa Denning Clerk of the common Pleas in & for Orange County.

Letter in file dated March 24, 1931, written in response to an inquiry.

You are advised that it appears from the papers in the Revolutionary War pension claim, S.45168, that John Belknap was commissioned February 26, 1776, Captain of the 5th Company, 2nd New York Regiment, then commanded by Colonel James Clinton, and served until late in October, 1777; he was in the battle of Fort Montgomery. He sated also that "during the Revolutionary War he was frequently ordered out by General Clinton to take command of different companies which had been detached as guards", no dates of this service given.

He was allowed pension on his application executed May 17, 1823, while a resident of New Windsor, Orange County, New York, aged eighty-nine years. At that time, soldier's, but her name was not stated.

He died October 25, 1825.

In 1854, Rhoda Kernaghan of Wayne County, Pennsylvania, stated that she was one of the soldier's children but did not give the name of the other children.
