Letter in folder dated October 18, 1924, written in response to an inquiry.

I have to advise you that the Revolutionary War records of this Bureau fail to afford any information in regard to a Gershom Blinn and you are herewith furnished the history of the only Simeon Blin found on said records. All spellings of that name have been searched.

From the papers in the Revolutionary War pension claim, S.45292, it appears that Simeon Blin enlisted at New Concord, New York, August 1, 1775 and served until January 14, 1776, as a private in Captain Joel Pratt's Company, Colonel VanSchaick's New York Regiment. He again enlisted at New Concord, New York, April 1, 1776, and served until April 20, 1777, in Captain Theodore Woodbridge's Company, Colonel Samuel Elmore's Connecticut Regiment. He also served on several short tours, no details given.

He was allowed pension on his application executed April 20, 1818, while living at Eaton, Madison County, New York, at which time he was 63 years old.

In 1820 he stated that his family consisted of a boy, aged 17 years, and a girl, aged 22 years, but did not state their names or relationship.
