Dear Madam:

The data which follow were obtained from papers on file in pension claim, W.18649, based upon service of Cornelius Bradt, in the Revolutionary War.

The date and place of birth of Cornelius Bradt and names of his parents are not shown.

Cornelius Bradt enlisted in the year 1777, and was out in the expedition against Burgoyne, (1) and continued to serve as private at various times to 1781, amounting in all to seven months and sixteen days, in Captains Jesse Van Slyck's, (2) Thomas B. Bancker's, Jellis A. Fonda's and John Van Petten's (3) companies, Colonel Abraham Wemple's New York Regiment.

He died July 15, 1826.

Cornelius Bradt married March 31, 1786, in Schenectady, New York, Annatje (Anna) Peterson. Date and place of her birth and names of her parents are not shown.

Soldier's widow, Annatje Bradt, was allowed pension on her application executed October 10, 1838, at which time she was aged seventy-three years and a resident of Rotterdam, Schenectady County.

No reference was made to children.

In order to obtain the date of last payment of pension, the name and address or person paid and possibly the date of death of Annatje Bradt, widow of Cornelius Bradt, you should address the Comptroller General, General Accounting Office, Records Division, this city, and cite the following data:

Annetie Bradt (as her name was born on the pension roll) widow of Cornelius Bradt. Certificate #1945, Issued September 11, 1842, Rate $21.77 per annum, Commenced March 4, 1848, continued from 1838, Act of February 2, 1848, New York, Albany Agency.

Very truly yours, A.D. Hiller, Executive Assistant to the Administrator.
