New Jersey

Morris County SS.

Personally came before me Lewis Condict one of the Judges of the Inferior Court of Common Pleas in and for the said County of Morris, Moses Day, who being duly sworn deposeth and saith, that he served as a private soldier against the Common Enemy, in the Revolutionary War; on the Continental Establishment.

That he entitled sometime in the Spring of the year seventeen hundred and eighty one at the City of Philadelphia in Captain Zebulon M. Pike's troop of Horse in Col. Milans Regiment of Light Dragoons at the Pennsylvania line; that he belonged to the said Troops under the said Capt Pike for about two weeks, that he was then transferred to Captain James (or John) Heard's troop of the same Regiment and that he continued in the said Regiment until the conclusion of the war; and was honorably discharged by a regular discharge[d] at Carlisle in the State of Pennsylvania, that the said discharge was burnt with his dwelling house about sixteen years ago at Hanover in the State of New Jersey.

This deponent further saith that he resides in the township of Chatham in the County of Morris and State of New Jersey; that living so far distant from the place of his enlistment to wit, about one hundred miles and no person residing nearer him than that place who is knowing to his being in the revolutionary war as above stated by him, he is unable to produce any testimony corroborative of his own.

This deponent further saith that he has never heretofore received any pension from the United States; that from his reduced circumstances he needs the assistance of his country for support; and prays to have his name placed on the pension list under the act of Congress passed the 18 March 1818.
