End Notes—R.4394—John Geesler

1. Frederick Getman was a Captain in Colonel Peter Bellinger's Fourth Regiment of Tryon County Militia. Captain Getman was taken prisoner on June 21, 1782. There is only a muster roll for 1779 and 1780 for this company but no one living at Stone Arabia would have served in this company.
2. Andrew Gray served as a sergeant in Colonel Jacob Klock's Second Regiment of Tryon County Militia. A check of officers for the Montgomery County Militia to 1800 do not show Gray as a Colonel. On October 2, 1786, in Lieutenant-Colonel Commandant Peter Schuyler's Regiment of Montgomery County Militia appointed Captain of the Second Company was Samuel Gray; Frederick Getman, lieutenant; Jacob G. Snell as Ensign. FROM: Military Minutes of the Council of Appointment of the State of New York, 1783-1821, ed. High Hastings, James B. Lyon, State Printer, Albany, 1901, Vol. I, P. 102.
3. Nicholas Coppernoll was commissioned Ensign on September 29, 1780 in Captain Henry Miller's Company in Colonel Klock's Regiment. Nicholas was appointed Captain of the Ninth Company of Light Infantry on October 2, 1786 in Schuyler's Montgomery County Militia. Same source as end not 2, page 103. In appears that the service John refers to is after the War of Independence, which is one of the reasons that his pension application was rejected.
4. He is probably referring to Lieutenant-Colonel Commandant John Newkirk of the Montgomery County militia.
5. Marinus Willett, Colonel of New York state Levy Regiment in 1782 and 1783 in the Mohawk Valley.
6. There are several Colonel and Lieutenant-Colonel VanRensselaer's.
7. Major General Philip Schuyler
8. Apparently John was in one of Lieutenant General John Burgoyne's German Regiments attached to his campaign army of 1777. John does not state if he was taken prisoner before or after General Burgoyne surrendered his army on October 17, 1777.
9. John amended his pension application on November 21, 1842 and also the testimony of Henry Murphy and Peter House. Murphy and House had served in the First Regiment of Tryon County Militia during the War of Independence. John Geesler, son of the applicant applied for his father's pension on September 16, 1852. He stated his father died about 1845 leaving no widow surviving. This John was living in the Town of Minden, Montgomery County in 1852.
