On this 19th day of July 1832 personally appeared before me Joseph B. Moore a Judge of the County Courts of the County of Albany in the state aforesaid, Alexander Mackey a resident of the town of Rensselaerville in the County of Albany and State of New York aged 68 years and upwards; who being first duly sworn according to law, doth on his oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefits of the act of Congress passed June 7, 1832.

That he entered the service of the United States under the following named officers, and served as herein stated.

That he entered the said service in the Town of New Windsor in the county of Orange in the State of New York where he then resided in the months of April or May 1776 as a Fifer in Capt. John Nickols (1) company of Militia or Levies, and immediately marched to Peekskill on the Hudson River where the said company were first engaged in building Fort Independence and continued at that place until the fall of the same year, when he went up with the said company to a place near New Windsor, where the said company worked at the Cheval de frise's and he staid at this place until in the month of November of the same year when he was dismissed and then returned home.

In the month of April or May in the next year, he again entered the said service and enlisted as a Fifer in a company (the names of the officers he does now [sic, not] recollect) at New Windsor aforesaid and immediately marched in the said company to Fort Clinton where he joined a regiment which he thinks was commanded by a Colonel by the name of Paulding, (2) he continued at Fort Clinton doing the duty of a Fifer in the said company until a short time before Fort Montgomery (3) was taken, or at least four months when he was dismissed, and then returned home—the same fall he moved with his family to New Paltz in the (now) county of Ulster in the said State of New York.

That in the course of the next year he thinks in the spring/summer of 1779 he again entered the said service as a substitute for one Jonas Kelsey who belonged to a class and had to go for his class—that he went under the command of Lieut Scutt as a private to Haversink, Miniskink, and other places and was part of the time stationed at Lunenkill, thinks he served over two weeks at this time & perhaps a month & then returned home to New Paltz aforesaid.

In the fall of the year 1780 he again entered the said service as a substitute for his brother William Mackey and joined Capt. Vandenburg's (4) Company in Colonel Willet's regiment as a private at a place back of West Point where he and the said company were engaged in building huts and a blockhouse for the colonel; that they staid until snow fell, and was then ordered to march up the river to Albany, where he staid a short time, then went back to West Point where they were again directed to return back to Albany, and on the way to Albany & after landing at Newburgh he was discharged and then returned home, he was out in this campaign at least three months. In the month of April 1781 he again entered the said service at Poughkeepsie in the State of New York in Capt. Livingston's (5) Company and Colonel Paulding's regiment as a private and was immediately marched to Fishkill, and there went on board of a vessel and came up to Esopus in Ulster County, and then marched by land from Esopus to a place near the Catskill Mountains at the house of one Wnykoop where he and the said company built a fort, where he staid until the latter part of the season when he was exchanged and went to Poughkeepsie and joined Governor Clinton's Guards—and continued at Poughkeepsie at the guard house until he was discharged, after having served at this time at least nine months.

After he served his brother's time out as a substitute he received a written discharge, which is lost, that he has no documentary evidence to prove his service nor does he know of any person he can procure to testify to his services—except Jonas Kelsey and Josiah Baker who have made affidavits hereto annexed—That he resides 30 miles from the City of Albany where the Courts of Record for the County of Albany are held, that he has a very lame foot and is otherwise infirm, and is wholly unable to travel that distance to attend the court—He hereby relinquishes every claim whatever to a pension except the present, or any annuity, and declares that his name is not on the Pension Roll of the Agency of any State. (Signed) Alexander Mackey
