

Pension Application for Thomas Manning

S.16933

State of New York

County of Essex SS.

On this twenty seventh day of September in the year of Our Lord 1832. Personally appeared before the Court of Common Pleas of the County of Essex aforesaid Thomas Manning a Resident of Wellsborough [Willsboro] in the County of Essex and State of New York aged seventy four years, who being first duly sworn according to law doth on his said Oath make the following Declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the Provision made by the act of congress, passed June 7th 1832.

That he enlisted in the Army of the United States in the year 1777, Captain Gilbert Livingston and served in Colonel Frayer's Regiment of the Continental Line under the following named officers Col. Frayer, Captain Gilbert Livingston, Lieut Ostrander, Sergeants William McNaucy & John Bogard & that he can not recollect any other of his field or company officers names, that he left the service in the month of January in the year 1778 at Esopus in the State of New York. That he resided in Dutchess County in the State of New York.

That he resided in Dutchess County in the State of New York when he entered the service, and and [sic] that at the time he enlisted he drew a Bounty of £75.

That during the time of his service he was in a skirmish with the British Indians at Sandaken where his regiment were stationed keeping garrison, at the time the British came up the North or Hudson River & Burnt Esopus—they marched from Sandaken to Esopus but did not arrive there until the British had re-embarked on Board there, shipping and sailed down the river, that they then returned to Sandaken at their quarters & remained there until their time was out when they were marched to Esopus and discharged by Col. Frayer, did not receive a written discharge the Regiment men paraded & dismissed by the said Col Frayer. That he enlisted for nine months service and served his term out.

And he further declares and says that in the early part of the spring of the year 1778, he entered the service of the United States as a substitute for his Brother Joseph Manning—who was drafted for the purpose of [?] one from Poughkeepsie where he resided to West Point to work on the Fort and that he did go and worked on the fort under the charge of th e Engineer (whose name he does not recollect) for eight days being at the expiration of said time dismissed from staying any longer by the said engineer.

And that on his return to Poughkeepsie he again took the place of another person who was drafted for six days to work on the Barracks at Fishkill and that he did go and worked five days, does not recollect who had command of the artificers nor the person's name for whom he was a substitute.

He hereby relinquishes every claim whatever to a Pension or Annuity except he present and he declares that his name is not on the pension roll of the agency of any State. That he made application for a pension under the act of March 18, 1818 and made proof of his service by the affidavit of Nathaniel Chatterson and believes his papers are now in the War Office. (Signed with his mark) Thomas Manning
