Sworn to and subscribed the day & year aforesaid before me. Munson Buel, Judge as aforesaid.

Letter in folder dated November 1, 1939, written in response to an inquiry.

Reference is made to your letter in which you state that the James Tompkins in whom you [are] particularly interested, was of Tuckahoe, Westchester County, New York, and was a soldier in the Revolutionary War.

The Revolutionary War record of James Tompkins which follows was obtained from papers on file in claim for pension, S.23456, based upon his record of the only James Tompkins (Tomkins), of New York, found on file in the Revolutionary War pension records of this office.

James Tompkins was born in the year 1755, in Phillipstown, Dutchess County, New York. The names of his parents are not given.

While residing in Phillipstown, James Tompkins served as fifer with the New York troops, as follows.

From sometime in September 1777, three months in Captain George Lane's company; from about the first of November, 1778, two months in Captain Lane's company, Colonel Henry Ludenton's regiment; from sometime in August, 1781, four months in captain William Dusen's Company, Colonel Henry Ludenton's regiment.

James Tompkins lived after the close of the Revolution in Phillipstown, and in Livingston Manor, New York.

He was allowed pension on his application executed August 17, 1833, at which time he was living in Windham, Greene County, New York.

It was not stated whether James Tompkins was ever married.

Solomon Tompkins was a resident of Windham, New York in 1833, and Stephen N. Tompkins was living in 1834, in Westerlo, Albany County, New York. They stated that they were well acquainted with the soldier, James Tompkins, but no relationship is shown.
