Rendezvoused at Fishkill under command of Captain Cody in Col. Robert VanRensselaer Regiment continued in the service two months & was there dismissed—I enlisted in the year 1780 for three months passed Muster on the 15 July 1780 under Captain Elijah Bostwick in Colonel Morris Graham Regiment—

Rendezvoused again at FishKill marched to West Point was there when Gen Arnold was dismounting his cannon at Fort Put & the Redoubts & thence marched to the Northward was at Albany where Col Malcome [Malcolm] & Deboy’s [Dubois] Regt went up the Mohawk when our Regiment was ordered to Fort Edward & from thence to Parmertown [Palmertown?] Garrison where we removed until the 25th Oct 1780 which was over the time for which I enlisted being three months & ten days—we staid ten days over our time untill relief came not wishing to leave the garrison defenseless.

In the month of Oct 1781 when the alarm was given for the whole militia to meet at Bemus’ Heights at the head of Stillwater.

I entered the service again under the command of Capt Daniel Herrick, Col.
