

Pension Application for Claus Vanhouten

S.23041

State of New York

Rockland County SS

On this twenty eight day of November in the year A.D. 1832, personally appeared in open court, before the Judges of the court of Common Please [Pleas] now sitting Clause VanHouten, a resident of the town of Ramapo in the County of Rockland, aged eighty five years, the first day of December 1831, who being first duly sworn according to law, doth on his oath make the following declaration, in order to obtain the benefit of the Act of Congress, passed June 7, 1832.

That he entered the service of the United States, under the following named officers, and served as herein stated.

That in the month of March 1776. I enlisted in the town of Hampstead (now Ramapo) for four months in a company commanded by Capt Gilbert Cooper, John D. Coe and John Vanderbilt were under officers, called minute men, and went to New York, and was stationed sometime at a place called Bunkers hill, near the City, and then the company returned home, where I served at every call of the officers until the time of enlistment was expired.

Then about the last of July or the first of August, of the same year, I at a place called Nyack enlisted for five months, in a company whereof Jacob Deronder was Capt and Isaac Coe and John D. Coe were Lieut and Marched from thence to Haverstraw where we remained some time, marched from there to Fort Montgomery, then back to Haverstraw, and then we went to [Pied?] hills near Peekskill, where we lay until the first of January 1777 when the company was discharged and went home. Then after being a short time home I as ordered out on duty in a Company commanded by Capt Hendrick Tenure, Vout Van Orden and Thomas Blauvelt were Lietuenants, and served the greatest part of time with that company having but little time that I could be at home, until the month of October following.

There being orders given that the militia should be divided into four classes in order that each man might bear his proportion of the duty of guarding and each class was to serve one week and then relieved by an other so all had to serve one forth part of his time or get a substitute in which capacity I served in Capt. Tenure's Company as a Corporal from about the first of March 1778, until the close of the war. The Regiment to which the company belonged was formerly commanded by Col'n A. Hawghs [Hawk] Hay, but then chiefly by Col'n Gilbert Cooper, and our duty was guarding along the river from Closter to Stony Point and Scouting along through the county of Bergen to protect the inhabitants from being plundered murdered and being taken prisoners by the reffugees [refugees] and British army and that exclusive of my service aforesaid every man that was at home to hold himself in readiness to run at a moment's notice when ever there was an alarm made which was whenever the enemy found any part of our country not sufficiently guarded when they would march out and plunder & c then we had to hasten to meet them and collect under such officers as appeared and peruse them until we drove them off, which alarms was very often and some times would take a week or more before I arrived at home. These with my tower [tour?] of duty with the militia occupied almost the whole of my time that I did very little but military duty. And I feel confident that is [it] was actually out on duty, exclusive of my enlistments for more than two years.

He has no documentary evidence of his services as he did not receive any discharge.

He hereby relinquishes every claim whatever to a pension or annuity except the present and declares that his name is not on the pension roll of the Agency of any State. (Signed) Claus VanHouten

Sworn and subscribed, the day and year aforesaid in open court. David Pye,
