End Notes—S.11614—Jeronimus Van Ness

1. Silas Gray was appointed captain on April 27, 1781 in Lieutenant-Colonel Commandant Marinus Willett's Regiment of New York State Levies.
2. John Fonda, Jr., was appointed a lieutenant on April 27, 1781 in Willett's Regiment. John also served as the QuarterMaster for part of 1781 for the same regiment.
3. John McKinstry was appointed major on April 27, 1781 in Willett's Regiment McKinstry was appointed Lieutenant Colonel Commandant on April 28, 1781 of his own regiment and Willett was appointed on the same day for the same rank. Willett refers to McKinstry as major for most of the year and in the payroll for 1781 under "audited and paid for their service" gives McKinstry's rank and pay as a major. McKinstry's appointed officers for his regiment actually served in Willett's Regiment. It appears that McKinstry did not recruit enough enlisted men to formally raise a regiment. So far no actual muster rolls or payroll for companies of McKinstry's regiment have been found.
4. The regiment was not formed until April of 1781 and Captain Gray's Company served to January 1, 1782. As he claims the original discharge had been handed to Doct Fobridge, the agent to obtain pensions in 1817, this information is from memory and in error. On Captain Gray's Pay Receipt Roll his name is listed as Jameron Van Nist and was owed £ 18. . 13. . 4. FROM: Revolutionary War Rolls 1775-1783, Series M-246, Roll 78, Folder 173, National Archives, Washington, D.C.
5. Jeronimus also served as a private in Captain Matthew De Garmo's Third Company in Colonel Peter Yates' Fourteenth Regiment of Albany County Militia. As he turned 16 in 1781 he would have to enlist in the nearest militia company of his residence. His pension application was eleven pages including the cover page and he had to only prove six months service which he had in his service in Willett's Regiment.
